

Global Port Services (Scotland) Ltd

Business Ethics Policy Statement

Document Number: GPSS-OP-PS-003
Revision number: 03
Revision date: Jan 2026

As part of our Core Values, Global Port Services Scotland Ltd focus on the constant need for us all to demonstrate care, honesty and fairness with everyone we deal with - colleagues, customers, suppliers, persons under the control of the Group, stakeholders, regulators and the community. By being explicit we intend our business dealings to be characterised in all matters by honesty, freedom from deception and fraud, our Core Values demonstrate we find unethical behaviour unacceptable.

Practices which Global Port Services Scotland Ltd considers unethical or dishonest include the following:

- Fraud, Bribery or Corruption
- Deception
- Clandestine brokering or sharing of tender information
- Collusion for the purpose of corrupting a competitive tender
- Payments, gifts or entertainment to Global Port Services Scotland Ltd employees, agents or representatives to influence decision making
- Harassment in the workplace
- Racial comments, remarks or harassment

By always delivering to the highest standard, and by going beyond stakeholder expectations, Global Port Services Scotland Ltd aim is to deliver innovation, safety, quality and service and we want to be explicit about the message to ensure we deliver. Should Global Port Services Scotland Ltd become aware of, or feel that it is being coerced into, becoming involved in any dishonest or unethical practices we will inform our Customer or potential Customer immediately.

Cameron Coutts
Managing Director
Global Port Services (Scotland) Ltd